

EVICTION INSTRUCTIONS

Notice of Eviction for any reason should be used to initiate an eviction action against the tenant. The notices must be served in accordance with NRS 40.280, and the correct proof of service must be obtained.

Complete the Notice(s) as Follows:

- Fill in the tenant name, address and telephone number.
- Provide the landlord name, address, telephone number and email address.
- Fill in the date of service.
- Provide any further information required in the Notice(s) being served.

DECLARATION OF SERVICE

Nevada law requires that any Notice of Eviction, other than Non-Payment of Rent, being served to the tenant for termination of their tenancy be served by the Sheriff's Office, Constable, a Licensed Processed Server or a Licensed Attorney's Agent. This is done one of three (3) ways as outlined in NRS 40.280. The document that records and proves the method of notification is the Declaration of Service.

After service has been made, you must bring the declaration(s) of service, attached to the Notice(s) you served, to the court when you file for a twenty-four (24) hour eviction order. Declaration of service is a paper that shows the tenant(s) received a copy of the Notice.

When you come to court, bring everything you need to file for your eviction. This means you must have two (2) notices with the declaration of service for each notice served, the written rental agreement if applicable, your Landlord's Complaint and the filing fee of $51.00

REMEMBER, this is your eviction. You must prove it. It is not up to the tenant to disprove your eviction. The court will help you file the eviction, but you have to provide the information required to file.

FAILURE TO GIVE LAWFUL NOTICE MAY RESULT IN THE DISMISSAL OF THE EVICTION AND REQUIRE THAT A NEW NOTICE PROCESS BEGIN AGAIN.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that your tenancy-at-will is hereby terminated, and you are required to vacate the premises within five (5) judicial<sup>1</sup> days following the Date of Service of this notice. If you do not comply with this notice, your possession of the premises will be unlawful (called "unlawful detainer"), and your landlord may initiate an eviction against you by either serving you with a Five-Day Notice to Quit for Unlawful Detainer or a Summons and Complaint for Unlawful Detainer. If the court determines that you are guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for your removal or an order providing for your nonadmittance, directing the sheriff or constable to post the order in a conspicuous place on the premises not later than 24 hours after the order is received by the sheriff or constable. The sheriff or constable shall then remove you not earlier than 24 hours but not later than 36 hours after the posting of the order.

If you are 60 years of age or older, or if you have a physical or mental disability, and your tenancy is not week-to-week, you may make a written request to your landlord to be allowed to continue in possession of the rental premises for an additional 30 days past the expiration of this notice. You must provide your landlord with proof of your age or disability with your written request. If your landlord rejects your request, you have the right to petition the court to continue in possession of the rental unit for an additional 30 days.

Pursuant to NRS 118A.390, you may seek relief if a landlord unlawfully removes you from the premises or excludes you by blocking or attempting to block your entry upon the premises, or willfully interrupts or causes or permits the interruption of an essential service required by the rental agreement or chapter 118A of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

Pursuant to NRS 40.251, if you receive this notice during a government shutdown and you are a federal worker, tribal worker, state worker, or household member of such a worker, you may request to be allowed to continue in possession during the period commencing on the date on which a shutdown begins and ending on the date that is 30 days after the date on which the shutdown ends by submitting a written request for the extended period and providing proof that you are a federal worker, tribal worker, state worker, or household member of such a worker during a shutdown. The landlord who receives this request shall allow you to continue in possession for the period requested unless the court orders otherwise.

<sup>1</sup> Judicial days do not include the date of service, weekends, or certain legal holidays.
